Yet the evening airs are balmy, And the evening shadows sweet. Our Summer's latest roses Lay withered long ago; And even the flowers of Autumn

NUMBER 32.

If every man would pay his wife a

Scarce keep their melowed glow Yet a peaceful season woods us Ere the times of storms and snow. Like the tender twilight weather,

When the toil of day is done, And we feel the bliss of quiet Our constant hearts have won-When the vesper planet blushes, Kissed by the dying sun. If she is equal to the task of being a So falls that tranquil season,

Dew-like on soul and sight, Faith's silvery star is blended With memory's sunset light, Wherein life pauses softly Along the verge of night.

Small Favors.

Self-praise depreciates. The jest that gives pain is no jest. He who wants little has always

Keep your mouth shut and your eyes creased, still it was expected that each exhausted long ago, but eyerything systematize her affairs, keep her books- Lay a bridge of silver for a flying A bad cloak often covers a good > the money belongs to her will sweeten Faint not under the perils or trials of her life, give new zest to her occupa- the way. tions and make her a happy and more Vices flow into palaces as the rivers > contented wife. To most women the into the sea. idea of asking for money is abhorrent. They put it off from day to day, the When a thing is once begun it is aldread of it is so great. They will wear most half finished.

> expensive clothes in the kitchen rather Impatience dries the blood sooner than ask for the money needful for the than age or sorrow. Women are extreme in all points.

> a wide field of thought to the husband. They are better or worse than men. Will be cultivate it? Many wives of Human life is everywhere a state in their wants are few or all supplied; they can see nothing unless it glitters. Virtue pardons the wicked, as a san-

Every child walks into existence through the golden gate of love.

Prolonging the Bloom.

No plant can continue in bloom if' :

When the forehead is projecting or strawberry was cultivated by either the high, or otherwise ill-shapen, the hair Greeks or Romans. During the long should be dressed low, so as to disguise lapse of years the berry flourished in it; the modern bang or fringe is appropriately worn in such cases. If the our English woods-a food for peasants "I believe so, but what—"
"I wrote that story."
"You?"
"Yell, if that isn't enough to astonish an oyster!"
"I was paid for it, too," she continued, "I was paid for it, too," she continued, a fine color color color color and into her face. "and its flat or depressed. This greatly detracts from the symmetery of the color of Dishard III in which Clanges." a fine color coming into her face; "and detracts from the symmetery of the the publishers wrote me they should be consemble. This defect can be, in a play of Richard III, in which Gloncester, when intent on murderous designs

> "My Lord of Ely, when I was last in I saw good strawberries in your garden

The Duel of Capt. Humphries & Mr.

EXCHANGE OF SHOTS BETWEEN CAPP. W. W.

A duel was fought at ten o'clock yesterdey, thirteen miles east of Columbus Miss., in Ala-Some years ago, long before the war, and Mr. Ed. Moore, both prominent citizens of a very musical family by the name of Columbus. Captain Humphries is a candidate Dixie lived in Worcester, Mass. One for Senator, and Captain Moore is an advocate negro minstrelsy line and soon the fa- phreys accepted, and all left for Alabama Toesmous Dixie Minstrels were known from day, and were not heard from until this morn-bring about her recovery.

Three weeks ago, having been totally helpless for four years, and being recovery and being recovery and being recovery.

I don't know," was the short reply.

and hope are young. He lies among the flowers, and the birds sing to his plantation on Wednesday evening. Dr. Lucian M. Sykes was struck flowers, and the birds sing to his plantation on Wednesday evening. Dr. Lucian M. Sykes was struck flowers, and the birds sing to his plantation on Wednesday evening. Dr. Lucian M. Sykes was struck flowers, and the birds sing to his plantation on Wednesday evening. Dr. Lucian M. Sykes was struck flowers, and the birds sing to his plantation on Wednesday evening. Dr. Lucian M. Sykes was struck flowers, and the birds sing to his plantation on Wednesday evening. Dr. Lucian M. Sykes was struck flowers, and the birds sing to his plantation on Wednesday evening. Dr. Lucian M. Sykes was struck flowers, and the birds sing to his plantation on Wednesday evening. Dr. Lucian M. Sykes was struck flowers, and the birds sing to his plantation on Wednesday evening. Dr. Lucian M. Sykes was struck flowers, and the birds sing to his plantation on Wednesday evening. Dr. Lucian M. Sykes was struck flowers, and the birds sing to his plantation on Wednesday evening. Dr. Lucian M. Sykes was struck flowers, and the birds sing to his plantation on Wednesday evening. Dr. Lucian M. Sykes was struck flowers, and the birds sing to his plantation on Wednesday evening. Dr. Lucian M. Sykes was struck flowers, and the birds sing to his plantation on Wednesday evening. Dr. Lucian M. Sykes was struck flowers, and the birds sing to his plantation on the birds sing to his plan away weeping bitterly. At midnight started from his home with Major Gus Sykes, she again descended to the room of death, and lay prostrate kissing the plate and moaning the name 'Louis.'

She semained thus four home the plate and moaning the name 'Louis.' might come to his help.

Why Mr. Weltall was so opposed to Bernard as a son-in-law will be readily understood when it is known that he will be readily to shoulder with the deserves more than a passing the had not separated from Major Sykes more than ten minutes sunk into a sleep from deep exhaustion. At seven o'clock this morning she was again found kneeling at the coffin's side. understood when it is known that he was poor, and nobody, particularly, in Valleythorpe. A person not of consequence enough to be noticed either favorably or otherwise, he was let severe to bravery in a man.

"Very well, let us go over to the Rev. Mr. Turtle was the parson at whose church she attended worship.

"Very well, let us go over to the Rev. Mr. Turtle was the parson at whose church she attended worship.

"Very well, let us go over to the Rev. Mr. Turtle on think that he deserves more than a passing notice. Mr. Everett is a Republican, has occupied a high position in his party, being at one time State Senator from Yazoo; he is still intensity of grief. At nine o'clock, however, the empress was wonderfully for the consequences of such intensity of grief. At nine o'clock, however, the empress was wonderfully for the consequences of such intensity of grief. At nine o'clock, however, the empress was wonderfully for the consequences of such intensity of grief. At nine o'clock, however, the empress was wonderfully for the consequences of such intensity of grief. At nine o'clock, however, the empress was wonderfully for the consequences of such intensity of grief. At nine o'clock, however, the empress was wonderfully for the consequences of such intensity of grief. At nine o'clock, however, the empress was wonderfully for the consequences of such intensity of grief. At nine o'clock, however, the empress was wonderfully for the consequences of such intensity of grief. At nine o'clock, however, the empress was wonderfully for the consequence of such intensity of grief. At nine o'clock, however, the empress was wonderfully for the consequence of such intensity of grief. At nine o'clock, however, the empress was wonderfully for the consequence of such intensity of grief. At nine o'clock, however, the empression of the consequence of such intensity of grief. At nine o'clock, however, the empression of the consequence of such intensity of grief. At nine o'clock, however, the empression of the consequence of such int

But we weren't in the standing back business

VOLUME XLII.

CITY SUBSCRIBERS, served by Carrier, ... 2 56 Names invariably discontinued at expiration of time paid for, unless renewed.

THE FUTURE LIFE.

BY WM. C. BRYANT.

SIX MONTHS

How shall I know thee in the sphere which

And perishes among the dust we tread? For I shall feel the sting of ceaseless pain If there I meet thy gentle presence not, Nor hear the voice I love, nor read again, In thy screnest eyes, the tender thought,

Will not thy own meek heart demand me and compensation. Freedom was greater than healthy as yourself, or no one. That heart whose fondest throbs to me were My name on earth was ever in thy prayer;

In the resplendence of that glorious sphere,

That love that lived through all the stormy

And meekly with my harsher nature bore, And deeper grew, and tenderer to the last, Shall it expire with life, and be no more?

A happier lot than mine, a larger life, Await thee there; for thou hast bowed th In cheerful homage to the rule of right,

And lovest all, and renderest good for ill. For me the sordid cares in which I dwell, Shrink and consume the heart as heat the

And wrath has left its sear, that fire of hell-

Has left its frightful scar upon my soul. Wilt thou not keep the same beloved name, this same fair, thoughtful brow and gentle eye, the same fair, thoughtful brow and gentle of work on Saturdays and his mode of spending his time—his late hours and sleepless nights of working (?) or frolic unfit him to do a day's face of the skin and made to circulate work on Monday, and he will not in a week work on Monday, and he will not in a week evenly throughout the body. You have Yet, though thou wear'st the glory of the sky,

Shall thou not teach me, in that calmer home, The wisdom that I learned so ill in this— The wisdom which is love—till I become Thy fit companion in that land of blies?

ever vigorously pressed in that body. This is a brief history of an enterprise largely affecting the interests, not of a single locality, but the whole State.

Its value and importance has been recognized by the Legislature and leading public men in all parts of the State. It has received the subscribe funds and send every negro off who desires to go. Just at present the planters of the State.

uring State and other aid, to construct the of high intelligence to the Legislature, who will pledge themselves to work earnestly and definitely for the road, and men who have the ability to present the matter to the Legislature in the strongest and best light. In the popular in the strongest and best light. In the popular in the strongest and best light, In the popular in the strongest and best light, In the popular in the strongest and best light. In the popular in the construction of the strongest and best light, In the popular in the strongest and best light, In the popular in the strongest and best light, In the popular in the construction of the strongest and best light. In the popular in the construction of the strongest and best light, In the popular in the construction of the strongest and best light. In the popular in the construction of the construction of the strongest and best light. In the popular in the construction of the construction of the construction of the strongest and best light. In the popular in the construction of the constructi be determined by a survey.

This article has grown longer than we intended. We propose in future numbers to continue the subject. Sea Shore Gazette, White Colonists in Louisiana.

AN EXAMPLE FOR LAND-OWNERS.

white maps of the lands, full descriptions of the soil, timber, water, climate, productions, the soil climate, reductions, the soil climate, reductions, the soil condition, etc. From Copinh, and other countries in that section, he succeeded in gathering twenty-seven white families, people brow helic families, people brow helical death of a brother to whom she was greatly attached. She went into construction of the family of the fami fon gin was at their service, for which they paid a moderate toll. What groceries, propaid a moderate toll. What groceries, provisions or other supplies they needed were or visions or other supplies they needed were or dered through his merchant here, a duplicate planting seed; to loster the introduction of account being invariably sent each purchaser, the best classes of live stock for breeding but the settlements being made through Mr. purposes; to enter into correspondence at once Lyle. For this he charged his tenants or colo-with various countries, for the introduction of Lemorey, and in the parishes of Rapides, Avoyelles and St. Landry. All are doing well, and Mr. Lyle's success has induced other large land owners in the neighborhood to follow his example.

One of the first things Mr. Lyle did was to creet a church and a school house, at his own expense, and he contributed liberally to support them, realizing that in them are powerful ties to keep the colonists together and attach them and their families to their new homes.

Association, the absolute necessity of some united, practical plan of immigration, in which this Association will co-operate; to be the medium through which parties interested may obtain information in regard to plantations, timber, or cane lands for sale or rent. And in general to harmonize and concentrate for the above purposes the efforts of all those engaged in the cultivation and sale of cotton, as well as those engaged in the manufacture of implements and machinery therefor, and for such other purposes as may hereafter be deemed expedient.

The Proposed Amendments.

Columbus Democrat. THE CLARION says that the Port Gibse Reveille led off in opposition to the proposed amendmendments to the State Constitution. Some two months ago the Democrat advised the people to vote down these amandments. the people to vote down these am

THE COLORED EXODUS.

has not half the cause of complaint that up in the following rules: exists amongst white laboring people all over The disembedied spirits of the dead,

When all of thee that time could wither, the continent. The first great evil wrought by politicians on the negro mind was the no-tion that mere freedom was the highest atorath, piety, morality, Heaven and God.

The "ballot-box" was pronounced to him the end of all evils. At its bottom lay a patent bleaching powder that would blanch the will then forget the love which joined us here?

but love that lived through all the stormy and larger movements of the unfettered mind, eat. It was the shining fruit of the Dead Sea dry. Wash them in warm water two for three times a week. Wear warm stockings, large boots and overshoes when in the stormy with the stormy of the storm follow the utilizing friendship of men who covering on the head; always keeping were ready enough to spend money and talk it cool. loud—when the negro was at a great distance, The negro discovered his mistake and settled down to work, and said he had been deceived idly drifting into a condition of general disease. Virtue, they admit, was never so little regarded before-vice, never so nearly univer-In snother column will be found a letter from the flow. M. A. Metts, of Winston coins by, on the subject of the Gulf and Ship Island Railroad, which accords with views by the state of the Gulf and Ship Island Railroad, which accords with views by the state of the s initrond, which accords with views long en- What is all this emigration Westward to It is a subject in which not only the people along the proposed line of the road, and residents of the sea-chore are interested, but it is so to the people of the whole State of Mississippi. Since 1854 each succeeding Legislating the past, few years are more trifled ally ward off consumering the lungs by inhalling as full a breath as possible, and pounding the breast during the inflation, will greatly enlarge the chest, strengthen the lung power and effectually ward off consumering ally ward off consumering all wards allowed the same construction. ture has, in some manner, endeavored to en- those of the past few years are mere trifles, ally ward off consumption. courage this enterprise, and give to the peo- It may prove the Pandora's box of universal ple of the whole State a highway to the seas-blore. In 1856, the Congress of the United States domated certain public lands of the gen-States domated certain public lands of the gen-tor. The first few years will be did not lend mon-yt of states down, row and then looking up as if the medium height, with dark hair and marry a girl who has always had every comfort, and don't know exactly what to do in life?"

"Your tongue, sir, your tongue; I am not through yet. Not long after to eat food dry enough to employ the natural saliva of the support and the sum time of your wide with his head of source, sum yet with his head of source, sum yet with his head of source, sum yet with his head of source, which shall head on then dom't know exactly what to do in life?"

"Your tongue; I am not through yet. Not long after to at food dry enough to employ the nature of your wide with his head of source, which will be bried. She will be bried. She will be bried. She will be bried to sum yet with the house of with the winter of your wide with his head of with your eyes may be opened so was for the time abandoned. Soon after the close of the war another charter was granted to build a Railroad from Vicksburg to the seashore, and liberal grants were made by the Legislature. A company organized under that charter and commenced work at Vicksburg, but from some cause unknown to us, abandoned the work, and so far as we are advised, went out of existence. In the last Legislature the subject was revived and liberal arrants of lambs, were made and franchises of the country that the subject was revived and liberal arrants of lambs, were made and franchises of the country that the subject was revived and liberal arrants of lambs, were made and franchises of the country that the subject was revived and liberal arrants of lambs, were made and franchises of the country that the subject was revived and liberal arrants of lambs, were made and franchises of the country that the subject was revived and liberal arrants of lambs, were made and franchises of the country that the subject was revived and liberal arrants of lambs, were made by the developed an immense force of white work developed an immense force of white work developed an immense force of white work at the cotton factories that would spring up all over the South, and in a few years we could manufacture half the cotton we could raise.

EXERCISE.

Exercise, not too violent, but sufficient grants of lands were made, and franchises more important than all is what I verily believe grants of lands were made, and tranchises given to the Ripley Railroad Company to construct a Railroad to a point on the Gulf shore, at or near Mississippi City. The friends of Gulf and Ship Island Road were misled. In giving their support to the act of incorporation and extension, by being told that there was an understanding and contract between the President of the Ripley Railroad Company and the Message of the State Positional States of the Gulf world, who had settled in the South, the old world, who had settled in the South. and the lesces of the State Penitentiary by to sell out and leave. These will return with ments that may cause perplexity and the company. The Legislature of 1868 is honger quotes. The best company also adopted a memorial to Congress, asking that body to reason and extend the donation and Tennessee is by white people. Many of that there is no rose without a thorn, formerly made to the Galf and Ship Island them don't want negro labor; they will not and that the darkest clouds have a men in all parts of the State. It has received men in all parts of the State. It has received the parts of the State. It has parts of the parts of the State. It has the parts of

The precise point of a terminus on the Gulf of Mexico, is only a matter of consequence. In so far, as it ought to be, that which is nearest to deep water, which can only to the West! Joy to all the South! However, I have neither time nor heart to indite

A Move in the Right Direction.

The writer had the honor of submitting a resolution to the Press Convention, which had wait and see. its last meeting at Pascagoula a few days ago, N. O. Picayune.]

We had the pleasure yesterday of making the acquaintance of Mr. D. M. Lyle, of this the acquaintance of Mr. D. M. Lyle, of this city, who is the owner of large tracts of land in the lower part of Rapides parish, a goodly portion of which, for some years after the war, he cultivated as a plantation, using negro labor exclusively.

In 1872 he determined to the an experinegro labor exclusively.

In 1872, he determined to try an experiment, which, during a long residence in Texas, spective journals. This was well. They did mists nothing.

The colony grew steadily until it has increased to several hundred persons, located on the Bayou Clerc, Bayou Huffbouer and Bayou Lemorey, and in the perisher of Rapides deemed expedient. The Atlanta Constitution says the more Senator Bruce investigates the Freedman's Bank robbery, the more he is purshed to know what became of the money.

As the body is purified by water, so is the soul purified by truth.

Advice to a Gentlemen on the Subject of Health. We next present the following vigorous, Hill's Manual of Social and Business Forms.] clear and unmistakable opinion of a prominent | The first great secret of good health citizen of Mississippi, of large experience and is good habits, and the next is regulariwide observation:

"But in brief, The negro ty of habits. They are briefly summed

Give yourself the necessary amount tainment in the universe. It was made to take the place of industry, or toil at least; it was a great equalizer and would place the Avoid feather beds. Sleep in a garment of sleep. Some men require five hours colored man and white man on the same plane not worn during the day. To maintain or a higher one-by the law of extremes, robust health sleep with a person as

In cold weather, dress warmly with Shall it be banished from thy tongue in heaven? Ethiopian's skin. Aladdin's lamp was a shadowy myth—but the ballot-box was the wealth of the universe in a nut-shell. The tree of life was rooted in the ballot-box. The any considerable length of time in a politician plucked the fruit and gave him to warm room. Keep your feet warm and to hate his old and only faithful friend, and when in the snow or wet. Wear a light

CLEANLINESS. Have always a pint or quart of water But the South ought by all means to help the bare hands. Wipe immediately; man, I wont hear of it! it on. The negro is no longer of any real follow by brisk rubbing over the body. "W value to the South as a laborer. He will not The whole operation need not take over sent work on Saturdays and his mode of spending five minutes. The result of this wash to do in two and a half days. They are rap- opened the pores of the skin, allowing | ter. Do you understand?" impurities in the body to pass off, and have given yourself in the operation a turned resolutely toward the door. Intemperance grows with frightful pace, | good, vigorous morning exercise. Pursue and like the poor white masses of our large this habit regularly and you will sel-

INFLATION OF THE LUNGS. Five minutes spent in the open air with?" result in? Well, if it goes on bravely and after dressing, inflating the lungs by in-

The war between the States came on, the results of which destroyed the ability of the of anything to purchase with—will compel us to do the same sensible and right thing to do regular hours, and lightly near the hour to do the same sensible and right thing to do f going to bed. Eat slowly; thoroughapsol to the Government, and the enterprise —produce them ourselves, are the time abandoned. Soon after the Besides, if but 2,000,000 bales of cotton were by masticate the food. Do not wash it

> Exercise, not too violent, but sufficient to produce a gentle perspiration, should be had each day in the open air.

The condition of the mind has much to do with health. Be hopeful and joyous. To be so avoid business entangle which grading and tracklaving would be commenced immediately. It turned out, however, Then the South will become the garden of the within your income. Attend church. Walk, ride, mix in jovial company. work was never begun, and the enterprise failed, and the land grants were lost to the company. The Legislature of 1868 tucky Railroad. The memorial was perhaps presented to Congress, but we doubt it was but the South has learned dreary winter. Do your duty, and leave the rest to God, who doeth all things have defeated this measure up to this time and we greatly fear that when a few more free passes and sundry other inducements are offered by these interested parties, that this enterprise, so much needed for the prosperity of our State, will again be intentionally lost eight of, by those who should take an active participation in its success. We can only Paralysis Cured by Prayer.

An Outlet to the Sea.

MISS ADELE SHATTUCK AND HER ALLEGED

MIRACULOUS RELIEF. in the power of spiritual faith to cure physical ailments has come to notice in Saratoga county. It happened in West Galway, a small curable, the young woman one day walked down stairs and informed her wonder stricken parents, by signs, that she had been cured in her father's, and held a special meeting for the especial purpose of praying for spiritual power to enact a further cure in this young person's case, and restore to her the power of speech. Miss Shattuck soon began singing and talk-The case is vouched for as a fact by the vilage folk, one of whom gave this account of it to the reporter.

N. Y. Tribune. Mr. Jere Haralson, an inteligent colored man, who was formerly a Congressman from Alabama, declares that the negro exodus has hardly begun yet, and predicts that it will start anew this Fall with a wholesale aweep not dreamed of. He says that no less than 15 000 blacks will leave the let District of Alabama will be seen that the let District of Alabama will be seen the let District of Alabama will be seen that the letter of the letter of

THE LIFE OF SONG. Is there any thing on earth, Where the strongest are not strong, Half so feeble in its birth, JACKSON, MISSISSIPPI, WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 6, 1879.

Or so sure of death as Song? Frailer blossom never grew, Pelted by the Summer rain; Lighter insect never flew-Scarcely come ere gone again! Children, who chase butterflies, May pursue it to and fro; Little maids who sigh "Heigh-ho!"

May deplore it, when it dies; Loftier dees to men belong – Larger life than Song! There is nothing on the earth, Where so many things are strong, Half so mighty in its birth, And so pure of life as Song. Never pine on mountain height, So the thunder-bolt defies;

Never eagle in his flight Soars with such undaunted eyes! Conquerers pull empires down, Think they will not be forgot; But if Song pursue them not, Time destroys their dark renown, Nothing is remembered long But the Life of Song.

THE WAY OF THE WORLD

-R. H. Stoddard, in Harper's.

"Your daughter and I are engaged, and we— 'Engaged! Young man, have you hours a day to work, are all in the new Jerusalem—the State of Kansas. The scheme is a be disagreeable when applying it with "Don't mention my daughter, young "We hoped you would give your con-

" Never!"

" Carries says-"

do what a Western tramp would be required evenly throughout the body. You have can't have my consent, nor my daugh- a place on the centre-table, and in the terrupt you."

young and can—'

"What business do you intend to jewelry store, sir?" " What wages ?" "Forty dollars a month."

skilful engraver?" daughter to you without further notice. | ceeded better than Benard so far. You are without means; without profession I might almost say; doing one lady.

what is this ambition of yours?" artist."

anything ?"

ings bring?" not sold any as yet ; I-" present?" "Iam engaged upon a painting which exercised over him. is about half finished." "What will it be worth when done?"

you decide to become a painter, come good spirits.

probability, be taken; and putting him home with me." He had been roused, ly alone. The fast young men of Valleythorpe, who played billiards, bet at horse races, arranged dancing parties at took no notice of the remark. horse races, arranged dancing parties at which each was floor manager turn about, held him in supreme contempt; they considered him a milk-and-water sort of young man, whose feelings and passions were of such a pale cast that he was incapable of any action of a decided complexion, either good or bad. The rest of the good people of Valleyunpardonable sin. His poverty might taken place as the rest. of it. But he was not, He idled his time ic old man, who was left alone with his away in sketching, drawing, and paint-wealth and his evil spirit. "What a that of the whole house. amount to anything. That was the verdict of Valleythorpe. This village, which a generation or two before had they shook their heads mournfully.

what a pity that she should throw away her prospects in this mad way." And the task of supplying and paying for the daily necessities of the home. If she of money-making, is apt to be crowded means. and spoiled and beggared.

Now, freedom, the ballot-box, "forty acres and a mule," and free horses, cigars, big dances, three work days to a week and four dances, three work days to a week and four dances, three work days to a week and four dances and spoiled and beggared.

Now, freedom, the ballot-box, "forty acres in your sleeping-room. In the morning, lost your senses! Do you know what after washing and wiping hands and place the poet, the artist, the dreamer been used up long ago."

"Engaged! Young man, have you lost your senses! Do you know what after washing about?"

I presume it appears presumptuous can find no congenial abiding-place. I "Yes, my dear, that is all gone; but father has not believe us." say this is especially the case in a pros- father has not helped us."

perous community in the beginning of measure, other and more humanizing while you have been ill."

"I am all attention; may my tongue Never mind what she says. You are recognized. The poet's book finds cleave to the roof of my mouth, if I in the middle class have been accustomed which much is to be endured. hearts of men and women; the painter impatient and perplexed frown; then comed into every home. Valleythorpe, money, But—" he suddenly called him back. however, had not yet reached this stage "And he—" "What have you to support a wife in its march toward complete civilizain its march toward complete civilization, and Bernard, who was an artist by nature and by practice, was sadly by nature and by practice. "I haven't much yet, but we are both by nature and by practice, was sadly mouth now."

out of place. Bernard Holm, with an aged housekeeper, lived by himself in a small cot- through "Well, I don't know exactly; I—" tage left him by his parents, who were both dead. He was somewhat below as ever, and instead of remitting the no woman afraid to ask for what she age without any money, and wanting to the medium height, with dark hair and needed help, he said he did not lend mon-needs!' May I ask you to inquire of your he appeared not to be as elate as one "Is that your ambition to become a might suppose, considering the reason-"No, sir; it is not. I have always difficulty was, he had too keen a sense of his short-comings. A man with a

Miss Weltall was a magnificent young in order to succeed in the world, Mr. tall, a trifle taller than her lover, and ing your supplies." Holm, than I think you possess. But splendidly proportioned. Her features which were large, had the habit of look-"Indeed! Have you ever painted ing at one with a thrilling directness, and her hair was as black as mldnight. "Yes, sir, quite a number of pieces." Her will was imperious, even more in-"How much will one of your paint- flexible than her father's. In this respect she was entirely unlike her sainted " Not very much, I am afraid, I have mother, who had never had a will of her own, though her husband, at times, "No? are you painting anything at complained while in company, in a jo cose way, of the despotic sway his wife Carrie Weltall became impatient with the young painter for not embracing the "I don't know, sir; I am not sure opportunity of showing what he was cathat I can get anything for it; but I pable of, with more alacrity; especially, curing State and other aid, to construct the road? We believe it is. We believe that the State will make the same liberal grants which have beretefore been made, and in addition. The young generation is a total failure.

The young generatio State will make the same liberal grants which have heretofore been made, and in addition give the labor of the Penitentiary convicts, to do the grading and furnish the crossties; and Congress will grant the public lands of the United States, lying within the borders of Mississippi, in aid of the enterprise, if our Representatives will work earnestly in that direction.

To secure these things, the people send men of high intelligence to the Legislature, who will pledge themselves to work earnestly and work be forever aban-give the labor of the Penitentiary convicts, to do the grading and furnish the crossties; and Congress will grant the public lands of the Mississippi, in aid of the enterprise, if our Representatives will work earnestly in that direction.

To secure these things, the people send men of high intelligence to the Legislature, who will pledge themselves to work earnestly and in the strongest and best light. In the popular phrase of the day, to make it an issue in the canvass. To nominate no man who will not promise to use his best efforts to secure to the road the aid mentioned.

The precise point of a terminus on the list of elegant and expectant gentlemen.

The precise point of a terminus on the list of elegant and expectant gentlemen.

The precise point of a terminus on the list of elegant and expectant gentlemen.

The precise point of a terminus on the list of elegant and expectant gentlemen.

The precise point of a terminus on the list of elegant and expectant gentlemen.

The precise point of a terminus on the list of elegant and expectant gentlemen.

The precise point of a terminus on the list of elegant and expectant gentlemen.

The precise point of a terminus on the list of elegant and expectant gentlemen.

The precise point of a terminus on the list of elegant and expectant gentlemen.

The precise point of a terminus on the list of elegant and expectant gentlemen.

The precise point of a terminus on the list of elegant and expectant gentlemen.

The precise point of a terminus on the list of elegant and expectant gentlemen.

The precise point of a terminus on the list of elegant and expectant gentlemen.

The precise point of a terminus on the list of elegant and expectant gentlemen.

The precise point of a terminus on the list of elegant and expectant gentlemen.

The precise point of a terminus on the list of elegant and expectant gentlemen.

The precise point of a terminus on the list of elegant and expectant gentlemen.

The precise point of a terminus on the list of elegant and expectant gentlemen.

The precise point of a terminus on the list of elegant and expectant gentlemen.

The precise point of a terminus on the list of elegant and expectant gentlemen.

The precise point of a terminus on the list of elegant and expectant gentlemen.

The precise point of a terminus of the elegant and the e gold watch and chain, with a heavy time after. Mr. Weltall soon heard of temptation." The following is the letter seal; also a diamond breast-pin worth our artist's failure, and was not slow in they read together: Narrow minded politicians who work in the interest of railroad monopolies and townsings Valleythorpe. It was a boast that there him. Bernard was informed that, as he Valleythorpe. It was a boast that there him. Bernard was informed that, as he inform you that I have received an ofwas no nonsense about him; meaning had failed in his part of the compact of fer of one thousand dollars for your of the brothers, Walston Dixie, we bewas no nonsense about him; meaning had failed in his part of the compact of the c life from his thoughts whose practical of marriage between him and his daugh- hold the picture subject to your order. the wealthiest and most impossing personage in the village and for miles around, his astonishment was complete when Bernard Holm came to inform him which she was one of the wealthiest and the village and for miles around, his astonishment was complete when Bernard Holm came to inform him which she was one of the color one end of the country to the other. The daughter unfortunately was present at this interview and objected to having an affair in which she was one of the congratulate you on between them should cease henceforth. The daughter unfortunately was present at this interview and objected to having an affair in which she was one of the land for him as here. utilities were problematical. Being then ter; and he wished that all intercourse when Bernard Holm came to inform him he and his daughter were betrothed. He could not credit his sense of hearing, though it was not his habit to discredit anything pertaining to himself; and he could find no words wherewith to characterize the young man's surprising audacity.

After recovering in a measure from his spite of anything her father could do rawy him the matter. Whither to she had remain and he could find no words wherewith to characterize the young man's hopes, and put an effectual stop to any further development of this love affair, of which he had not violent at this, as one might suppose, and because it is and still for represent the every feature as these the great popularity. It was verily the land for him, as he found in the Southern States the gerns that was verily the land for him, as he found in the Southern States the gerns that was verily the land for him, as he found in the Southern States the gerns that was verily the land for him, as he found in the Southern States the gerns that the sould have her in the south in the was verily the land for him, as he found in the Southern States the gerns that a draw, and therefore the vour shad the principals concerned thus unmarity, chartity and unselfishness in the face of one, in the matter. Hithertoshe had remain posed of without having anything to say in the matter. Hithertoshe had remain the reling.

After recovering in a measure from his and well-earted avarice, selfishness and in the Southern States the gerns that a draw, and still for represent the vour picture are, and still for represent the underling to the measure from his habit to distinct the could have her in the south having anything to say in the could have her in the south having anything to say in the could have her in the could have her in the south have her in In 1872, he determined to try an experiment, which, during a long residence in Texas, needs to the war, he had seen succeed there, before the war, he had seen succeed there are farming people, exceedingly simple, and far removed from any city. The region is a referring people, exceedingly simple, and far removed from any city. The region is an effectual stop to any further devel are farming people, exceedingly simple, and far removed from any city. The region is an effectual stop to any further devel act too imperiously. Mr. Weltall grew hot and violentat this, as one might suppose, and declared in his turn that she mountainous and sterile. Four years ago the soil, timber, water, climate, productions, the soil transportation to market, hygicaic of transportation to market, hygicaic of the county. The inhabitants are farming people, exceedingly simple, and far removed from any city. The region is nonmatinous and sterile. Four years ago the choice of subject to yourself.

Yours truly, P. B. Mark.

Weltall saw that Bernard turned away with an air of defiance, the thought in your picture away with an air of defiance, the thought in your picture away with an air of defiance, the thought in your picture away with an air of defiance, the thought in your picture away with an air of defiance, the thought in your picture away with an air of defiance, the thermals. This was to utter by crush the young man's hopes, and put are farming people, exceedingly simple, and far removed from any city. The region is an effectual stop to any further devel act too imperious row, should be farmently him to-morrow, should her father by crush the young man's hopes, and put are farming people, exceedingly simple, and far removed from any city. The region is an effectual stop to say the county.

Water the county him to-morrow, should her father by crush t less for four years, and being regarded as in- trary to his wishes would not, in all married immediately, then you will come once neglected friends. on probation, as it were, time would be too, and when occasion called for it, he answer to prayer. Since then her limbs have gained; and with time many things gradually become strong and pliant. Last week, at her request, the clergy and members of the three churches in West Galway met at Bernard as a son in law will be readily bettles for access of the position which thorpe held him in nearly the same esti- wife. Two hours afterward Valleythorpe Wives Rights to the Family Purse. mation; he was not regarded as a very was dumbfounded by the news. Three Country Gentleman.] likely young man; he was not rich, nor hours afterward the bride and groom in a way to become so; that was his were as much astonished at what had weekly sum for housekeeping, clothing, have been forgiven had he shown him-self eager and successful in working out dismal and cheerless place to the choler-out of ten her management of the fund ing foolish pictures. He would never pity," said friends and acquaintances, daily necessities of the home. If she been on the verge of a westward-moving civilization, was situated on a stream of water affording splendid opportunities tedly in Mr. Holm's modest home; but go a great way—much farther than a for the employment of water power. It when the honeymoon waned, the sting man could make one hundred and fifty was dotted with mills and factories of all kinds. The inhabitants of the place became sharper, and finally worked its had come there poor-or their ancestors legitimate result; he was seized with sum: will lay by a certain amount tohad—and by hard work and economy it had been in the power of each person to When he had recovered far enough to be become rich; although the opportunities able to think, he knew that the little economy in buying soap by the bar, for becoming so now had greatly de- money he had on hand must have been starch or sugar by the pound. She will open one would do his best to attain wealth, seemed to go on as usual; his young wife a day-book and a ledger—and exhibit enemy. let circumstances be what they would. was brisk and cheerful now that her hus- her well-kept accounts with pride and In every hard-working and prosperous band was out of danger, and appeared delight. community every thought, except that not to be hampered by the want of The very fact that the expenditure of out, in the beginning of its career at "I suppose Mr. Weltall had to come least; dollars and cents is the standard to the rescue after all," said Bernard one

"But how have you-?" "You mustn't talk; the doctor has By and by, when the intoxication of forbidden it, you know. But if you will purchase of a plain calico dress. The submoney-making begins to subside in a listen, I will tell you what has happened ject of money supplies in the home opens to earn their own support, to purchase their own wardrobes before they were "Well, when I saw that our fortune "I do, sir." And Bernard Holm and the sculptor are honored, and their was fast dwindling away, I wrote a note married. But after marriage all is works, beginning to give delight by to my father stating how we were situa- changed; they must ask for what The miles of heaven are few and Mr. Weltall looked after the retreat- their symmetry and harmony, and the ted, and as my anger toward him had they require rather than have it short and the glorious end will soon come. ing form of the young man with an thought which they contain, are wel- left me, I asked him to send me some paid to them quarterly. At first Surely half the world must be blind;

> "Be careful of your tongue, sir; it and it becomes very dreary. Can the "Proceed, please; I'll be as mum as ask for, never dreaming how many he only did not know how to acquire an Egyptian 3,000 years old, till you are days it requires to summon courage to them. asks for necessities. 'An utterly false

"But it seemed my father was angry

-he is here now."

title, you know." "I remember it, but what has that to do with my question?" "You said you thought it was quite good, didn't you?"

an oyster !" glad to publish and pay for anything I measure, lessened by a braid surmountmight be pleased to send them." about it?5

"I wished to surprise you some day.

were ill I also managed to send one oc- curls, as they only make the peaked Now, this incident is taken almost casionally. There's where the money bas come from." Soft wayes, bas come from." Soft wayes, brushed lightly away from the delicate that strawbarries must have been culti-Bernard could only look at her in silence; but his face expressed the feelings the waves, are in good taste, and are he could not utter in words; then the always becoming to thin visages. thought of his own failure came into his mind; the ashes of dead hopes lay bitter in his heart, he turned his head awaya mist was gathering before his eyes. The young wife stole gently to his side, inform me as early as possible what is the oriand kissing him on the forehead, placed gin of the word "Dixie?" In a recent discusspecial to the Herald. a letter in his hand. "This," said she, sion there was quite a difference of opinon on the subject and I would like to know positively. tempted to break it, but I withstood the

"MR. HOLM : DEAR SIR-I write to "Allow me to congratulate you on

Hon. James E. Everett.

A Water-Haul in Tippah. Southern Sentinel 1 statement," exclaims some one; 'there's

"I am employed as an engraver in a most inveterate tale-bearer to hawk I could not endure to think he should prevailing fashion, however simple or being in the hands of two different perabout. When he returned to report the go as a begger among strangers, so I in- artistic it may be, should never be sons, frequently exhibit the most strik result of the interview to Miss Weltall, vited him to come here and live with us adopted until a trial has been made as ing contrast—one a mass of flowers, to its fitness to the individual-the same while the other is bare; and those who An expression of vexation passed over Bernard's face, but he said nothing. \
"You won't be vexed, will you, my a lady makes a fright of the vexed, will you, my to be vexed. dearie?" his wife said, in answer to his of herself by dressing her hair fashion-observe that the one is loaded with hips "Well, Mr. Holm, you yourself must coarser-fibred nature and the same abili-expression. "He is an old broken-down ably. As a rule, when the forehead or seed-vessels, which are swelling in see that it would not do to consign my ties would in all probability have sucman; the truth is, his mind is affected; he is very quiet, and keeps out of everyhe is very quiet, and keeps out of everying it full above the temples. If the one case every bloom was trimmed off "Oh, well, let him stay, and welcome; forehead be broad and the face narrow, as fast as it faded, in the other they but he did not show much pity on us this style will not be at all becoming, took their chance. So it will be found thing and designing someting different. I use the word "magnificent" bethis shows instability of character, cause I can think of no other adjective when we were in trouble. But now tell and should not be worn, even though it in many other cases. It is only necesmore firmness and decision are required that describes her so fully. She was me from what source you have been drawthe present mode of finishing off the season of bloom will be prolonged. Do you remember that short story head with a number of puffs on the top N. E. Homestead. which was published in our magazine does very well for a full, short face; what is this ambition of yours?"

were regular and cleanly cut, her which was published in our magazine of the features are sharp and thin, while her eyes, not long after we were married? You mentioned its having such a peculiar the visage long and narrow, this manner of dressing the hair should be avoided.

> fine color coming into her face; "and detracts from the symmetery of the measure, lessened by a braid surmounting the head as a coronet, or a number Ely and says: "And you never told me anything of puffs artistically arranged thereon. Turning the hair up over a cushion is also becoming to this style of head. had sent them a number of articles be- "Ladies with sharp features," says a fore you were taken sick, and while you modern writer, "should never wear

The Origin of Dixie.

To the Editor of the Gazette: If it is too much trouble will you kindly BALTIMORE, June 20, 1879.

She took a last look at the dead face, Okolona States.] and then, with all the pitcous passion of The Radicaly are perpetually referring to hopeless sorrow, kissed the name on the coffin plate in token of an everlasting farewell. Friends of her youth and of days of her greatness cently led her out at that period of our mortal pilgrimage. We had the work of freemen to de,— And we did it,— And we did it well,—

And we will do it sgain,